

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. A Public School Register.

As birds of passage on some mid-sea isle,
From divers lands and bound on divers ways,
In company assembled for awhile,
Then lose each other in the ocean haze :
So are we parted when are done the days
Of our brief brotherhood within this pile ;
The world grows wider then ; new hopes beguile ;
And from new lips we wait the word of praise.
No lifeless page is this that bears enrolled
Names once familiar, and bids reappear
Forgotten faces. One has climbed to fame
In law or letters ; one proved greatly bold
In battle ; one—it may be the most dear—
Just does his life's work well and is the same.

F. W. BOURDILLON.

P R E F A C E.

I SHOULD not have brought out this Second Edition of the Register so soon if I had not regarded the first as an experiment. I hope that this will be found to be an improvement on its predecessor. By their very nature all Registers or Records must be faulty and imperfect, for their subject-matter requires correction every day. But the past does not alter, and these pages may serve to revive not a few memories of the old familiar faces. One of our own poets has expressed my thoughts better than I could put them in the sonnet which he kindly sent me last February. Besides many other kind correspondents all over the world, I cannot resist thanking a few of my helpers by name. The Rev. A. de M. Hensley, Rev. H. Couchman, and W. E. Russell, Esq., have been constant in their assistance at Haileybury (Mr. Russell has taken infinite pains in preparing the account of the negotiations which resulted in the foundation of the School); C. Price, Esq., lent me his annotated Register and gave me some invaluable early lists; E. A. Armstrong and H. J. W. Holt helped me with Barristers and Solicitors, Rev. W. Knox Ormsby with Clergy, J. T. Clapham with Doctors, G. H. Lacy with O.H.s in the Army. Rev. W. D. Fenning took the photograph of the Bradby Hall, a photogravure of which forms the frontispiece of half of this edition. Mr. S. Allen lent me a complete set of reports of Speech Day.

‡ Against a name means that a near relation, or in a few cases guardian, has given me the main particulars, if the O.H. himself has not. I cannot help thinking that some few will feel a little sorry when they find how much they might have done, and yet they did not even take the trouble to ensure their own record being correct.

I have done my best to find out the whereabouts of every one, but many errors are unavoidable. I trust that those who are omitted or incorrectly described will forgive the Editor, even if it is his fault.

L. S. MILFORD.

HISTORICAL NOTES.

I have been allowed to prefix to this slight summary of our history the interesting article which appeared in The Haileyburian when the School attained its majority. I have not altered it, but some of the earlier statements will be found to be amplified in an article which appears at the end of these "Historical Notes." For various reasons it could not be inserted in its natural place here. It may be instructive to see to some extent how our various buildings rose and our different institutions grew up. We are apt to resist all innovation at the outset, and then to rush to the opposite extreme of unreasoning adherence when the dangerous reform has been once introduced.

TWENTY-ONE YEARS AGO.

"On September 21st, 1862, Haileybury began its new life as a Public School. A dismal period had intervened since the time that the old East India College had been closed; for long it was absolutely empty, though the solitude was broken for a few months by the arrival of a regiment from India, fresh from the Mutiny. One can imagine that Hertford Heath was a fine recruiting station for the tired veterans, but the building was not suited for barracks, and it was soon again deserted. For a while there was a talk of its becoming the Union Workhouse, but happily a better fate was in store for the place. The enterprize of several county gentlemen, and the energy of Mr. Stephen Austin, successfully carried through a scheme for turning it into a School. Mr. Arthur G. Butler, a Rugby Master, was appointed head, and we entered into existence just twenty-one years ago. But how different the place was then! Imagine it after three years of neglect, only hastily got ready for a somewhat uncertain number of boys. The rooms, the Chapel, the Hall, musty and dismal to a degree, the grass in the Quadrangle like a neglected meadow, the paths badly gravelled, whilst on them stood furniture and piles of crockery, which had yet to be taken in doors, after the arrival of the boys. The gardens and grounds round about, though always beautiful, were rankly grown with vegetation and weeds, and felled timber obstructed progress in most directions. Arrival at such a place must have produced an oppressive feeling at any rate to those in charge. We trust we shall not be breaking confidence if, in proof of the want of furniture, we tell how one master brought down with him, only the day before the opening day, his bed and bedding, but very nearly missed having a resting-place after all, as the railway company positively refused to convey it as personal luggage! However, things got settled somehow, thanks to the energy of Mr. Butler and Mr. Hensley; nor must we omit the names of Benjamin Jones and George Dorset, who were true pillars of support on those opening days, as they were for long afterwards. The latter, however, caused some confusion at one stage of the proceedings. He had been told to collect all the boys' keys as they arrived, in order that the Matron might unpack their boxes. This he did, and took her the whole fifty mixed together, and without any names to them! Those interested in Permutations may calculate how many times each key would have to be tried. Poor Mrs. Cope—let us hope she did not use any very bad language! Those who knew her will remember her temper was sometimes ruffled. Besides Mr. Butler and Mr. Hensley, Mr. Charles Walford and Mr. Reade were Masters here the first term, and between them taught the fifty-four boys who had come. The class-rooms they used have long ago been altered or disappeared. Between the Master's House and the Lodge there were two big lecture rooms, with large lantern skylights; the lower one was the head form-room, the next Mr. Hensley's, whilst Mr. Walford and Mr. Reade had form-rooms at the other side of the Lodge. Two Dormitories were opened (the present Lawrence and Edmonstone), Mr. Hensley was Master of the lower, and Mr. C. Walford of the upper one, and the space now filled by the Big School was then occupied by their dormitory class-rooms and their own private rooms. The Houses wore then as now the familiar blue- or red-striped caps (Lawrence and Trevelyan), and went by no other name but the 'Blues' and the 'Reds.' As they were the first filled, they outstripped the other later ones for many a term in games; indeed it was long before any other house aspired even to challenge them. For the first two or three years the match between 'Reds' and 'Blues' was the great event of the term; and well can we remember how all the school flocked to see them playing for 'Cock House.' The rivalry between them was tremendous; it was intensified of course by the fact that they were the only two possible rivals for supremacy at that time. Their feud was not merely in games, they carried it into private life, and as those were days when fights were much more frequent than now, the state of Haileybury was somewhat like that of Verona, in the time of the Montagues and Capulets. Mr. Charles Walford left at the end of the first term, and his brother, who has but just left us, took his place. Mr. Reade, however, succeeded to his house (the Blues). There were 76* boys the second term, and the numbers went on steadily increasing, so that at the beginning of the second year the numbers were 173, whilst the third year was begun with 255. As they were required, new dormitories were opened in the Clock House, under Mr. H. Walford, Mr. Couchman, Mr. Prance, and Mr. Price. In the summer of 1864, when Mr. Hensley married, he and Mr. Couchman changed dormitories, taking their boys with them of course, Mr. Hensley going to his present one, so as to be near his House, and Mr. Couchman to the Lower dormitory, which was afterwards named Edmonstone. It was not till the School had been opened for a year that the Clock House was built, to make Masters' rooms for the new House. Let us go back to the beginning, however. The first boys to arrive were the two Michells from Yorkshire, the elder of whom afterwards became Captain of the XI, and later on commanded a company of the 60th Rifles at the Battle of Ulundi. They had mistaken the day and came a day too soon, so they were absolutely the first Haileyburians.†

"As the other boys arrived they soon made friends,—all were new alike, so there was a glorious equality, and the first thing young Haileybury as a body did was to run round and round the quadrangle hurraing and making a tremendous noise. Those must have been days when boys were more unsophisticated than now, for during the first week one of the smaller ones came up to a Master who is still here, and putting his hand in his, said, 'Do come and play with us, it's no fun without you.'

† There are other claimants, as will be found in the Register.—ED.

"Work of course had to begin soon, but alas ! through some mistake of the booksellers, there were no books ready, and the first two days had to be spent in a constant round of Arithmetic set on the black-board. We have in our hands a time-table of lessons for the first term, in Mr. Butler's own handwriting, and as it will probably interest some, we give it in full :—

7.—Chapel.	7.15—8.25.—Preparation.
7.15—8.15.—1st Lesson.	8.30.—Chapel.
8.20.—Breakfast.	9.—Bed for small Boys.
9.5.—Preparation.	9.30.—Bed for big Boys.
10—11.—Say Lesson.	10.—All Lights put out.
11.15—12.45.—Learn and say Lesson.
1.30.—Dinner.	Tuesday, 5.40—6.40.—Verses.
4 (or 3.45)—6.45.—Learn and say Lesson.	Thursday, 5—6.40.—Learn and say Lesson.
6.45.—Tea.

"In the old Chapel—so long and narrow—the boys all sat near the door, a 'House' on either side, and as there was no gas in those days the place was somewhat dimly lighted with candles. It must indeed have looked ghostly. For the first few nights there was no music, but a harmonium was soon bought, and Mr. Hensley became the first choir-master. In the Hall and Great School moderator lamps were used (it was before the time of paraffin oil), though there, too, candles sometimes made their appearance, presumably when oil ran out. To illustrate the various uses to which inventive youth can turn materials at its disposal, we will relate how one night, when the master of the week was late in coming in to Preparation, he found the boys had whiled away the time by melting the candles on the floor, thus making a slide more than half the length of the old Great School, which they were briskly enjoying.

"At first the Hall, as well as the Chapel, 'was a place of magnificent spaces.' The boys sat there too according to their Houses, at either side of the room, and seemed to show their rivalry in trying which House could behave the worst ! It had been arranged always to give the boys pickles for dinner, but they ate such a quantity that the practice was speedily dropped. The careful soul of Mr. Jones (the steward) was vexed and considerably surprised to find that fifty boys could eat £5 worth of pickles in a fortnight !

"As may be imagined, there were many parts of the building uninhabited, a few studies which existed at the Lodge side of the quadrangle were occupied at once, but the large block on the other side were desolate, save that a few were utilized as carpenters' and locksmiths' shops, or for stores of crockery, caps, etc. ; and one we recollect was given up to a scientific boy who dabbled in chemistry and photography. Many will remember the dingy groups that Berthon and Bosanquet used to take.

"During the first term, the part we now call the Clock House (it had then no projecting part or clock) was firmly believed to be haunted, and there were many who would not have gone near it at night on any account. Possibly the scarcity of light at that epoch had something to do with the belief, for the ghost, or ghosts, disappeared when the gas-works were built.

"What is now 'The Residency' was originally fitted up as the house of the second master; but Mr. Hensley preferred to live in rooms near his dormitory, and thus what had been meant for him was used as the Sick House, and continued so until the New Buildings were put up; for when Mr. Hensley did move, it was not there, but to his present house.

Hailey House was also then uninhabited, and had most romantic stories attached to it. Boys used to creep in through broken windows, and roam about in the empty and dusty rooms, and one brown mark on the floor was always pointed out as the spot where a murder had been committed. Probably the legend had some connection with the pond which used to exist in the Hailey House field, near the white gates, for that was always called 'Dead Man's Pond.' The garden was a charming rambling ground. It was rankly overgrown, and had probably not seen or felt a gardener's hand for six years, when Mr. Walford first went to live there in 1865. Roses straggled in all directions, and many another flower rapidly passing into the semi-wild stage, grew carelessly beautiful. The lawn was the recognized fighting ground of the School for its first few years; and many is the carp that has been pulled out of the Hailey House pond, where in those days the fishing was entirely free and unpreserved. We regret to say that Sunday afternoon was the favourite time for the sport, but this was probably merely because the regulation tall hats made such capital baskets for the fish when caught.

"The only cricket-field was the Pavilion ground, which was not then more than half its present size. The field below the Terrace sloped gently away to the road, and though used for football, was not levelled for cricket until eighteen months later. When first it was made, it was the ground of honour, and the foreign matches were played there. Cricket and football, combined with a little poaching, were the chief amusements of those days, for there were no fives-courts to start with; those in the Avenue were built in November, 1863, and some covered ones behind the studies a little later; but the two old racquet courts in the Pavilion field were much used, and though they had no side walls, and one of them not even a back wall, it was thought a capital game.* Dorset sold fives bats and racquet balls at the Lodge for the first few years. This was one of his multifarious duties, for those were the days before division of labour.

"The Grub Shop was actually in College. The front part of the form room that is now occupied by Mr. Lea† was then a lobby with doors opening out of it into form-rooms at either side. Beyond this lobby was a room about the size of a study, and this was the Grub Shop, to which Mr. Young used to come up every day from Hertford, with a gig full of hot tarts and other delicacies.

"With mention of this important department of the School we must pause for the present, and conclude these rough notes about our early infancy. R."

In the Prospectus of 1864 the heading runs, "Haileybury College (late East India College) near Hertford."

1864.—Mr. Arthur Butler was compelled to be away in 1864, but the quiet restored him to health. Mr. Hensley acted as vice-gerent during the Head Master's absence.

* The "Field Racquet Court" has been now (June, 1891) altered into uncovered Fives Courts.—Ed.

† At present Mr. Hawkins.—Ed.

1865.—In July, 1865, a circular was issued and funds were raised for the levelling of what is now known as the Pavilion Ground. In September Mr. Walford moved into Hailey House.

1866.—In the Autumn term a "white book" replaced the call over list which used to be sent home to give the examination order.

1867.—This was followed in the Easter term of 1867 by the Blue Book, arranged much as we now know it. In the Spring of 1867 "£100 was paid, after arbitration, as compensation for damage done to the crops and fences of a neighbouring farmer whose land adjoins ours."

1867.2.—The first 100 in a house match was made by R. Branton Day for the Blues v. Reds. In old days these (Lawrence and Trevelyan) were the only two which played for Cock House.

1867.3.—The usual prohibition of fireworks was forgotten until Nov. 4, and so the whole school was allowed out after lock-up on Nov. 5th to let off their fireworks on the Pavilion field.

On Nov. 30th the first Old Boys football match was played under the captaincy of P. T. Bainbrigge. Only fifteen Old Boys appeared.

In December Mr. Arthur Butler was reluctantly compelled to resign from ill-health. According to the Lawrence "Vive la Compagnie":

B stands for Butler, whose excellent rule,
Vive la Compagnie !
In five years has made us a great Public School,
Vive la Compagnie !

1868.1.—The Rev. E. H. Bradby, of Rugby and Harrow, was chosen to succeed Mr. Butler.

On March 1st the first number of The Haileyburian appeared. The form and arrangement have remained unaltered from the start. It was a difficult matter to find the sixpence in ready money which alone could procure the new publication. Only five could raise it in U.M.2, and one of those, I know, had to borrow the coin and forestall his next allowance.

House names were started about this time.

Mr. Reade presented the "Ball" as an Inter-House Trophy.

Article in Haileyburian in favour of "House Feeling."

Hitherto two or three of the Masters used to play football and cricket with the School team.

1868.2.—The Sanatorium was struck by lightning.

Proposal in Haileyburian (this will be abbreviated henceforward) for a Scientific Society.

- Presentation of the "Clock" by Mr. Couchman for the House which had most prizes.
- Haileybury beat Uppingham in the first match played; J. Spens, 53, W. P. Brooke, 29 and 43.
- The Clock is accused of suffering its hands to be blown on past the hour for Chapel and thereby occasioning "loss of wind and injury to the grass." (It used to be a privilege to run across the grass plots during the last minute. It was possible to sit in a study until the first stroke of the hour before middle chapel, and yet be in time.) Some wished for a clock tower in the middle of the quadrangle in memory of Mr. Arthur Butler.
- The Duke of Edinburgh asked for and obtained the addition of an extra week to the Summer Holidays.
- Suggestions for a School Library; O.H. dinner; Rifle Corps; Football match with Wellington; Cricket Club to take over the Grub Shop.
- The "Literary Society" was set on foot by Mr. Reade. The first meeting was held in the open air under the fence outside the Hailey House garden. One burning question was whether the Society should have a distinctive mark or badge or no. The rival parties were to vote by declamation, "Badgers" or "Non-Badgers." The "Literary Paper" with its motto was the compromise. A "Convivium" or banquet was contemplated as a terminal entertainment. This was occasionally realized.
- 1868.3.—The Racquet shop was built and racquet and fives balls were sold by the professional, instead of being bought at the Lodge.
- First debate of the Literary Society, November 21st, on the "Enfranchisement of Women."
- The Masters still played for the School in matches.
- 1869.1.—Articles on "Our House Names" began with a life of "Sir John Lawrence."
- Haileybury made its first appearance at Prince's, and scored 81 points to Rugby's 83.
- Lawrence for the third time in three consecutive years had House Athletics.
- An "In-time" prize was offered by Messrs. Ash, Price, and Hart. (Form masters used to punish the "lates" for Chapel until 1881. The Masters of each table in Hall were responsible for the punctuality of their own table till after 1874.)
- About this time the "Cap-room" was transferred from Study 25, and Herr Scheibe relinquished the present room, which was until then a music room.

1869.2.—Uppingham on a very wet wicket scored 90 to our 80, of which Spens made 51.

Prize for swimming in clothes offered by Mr. Pitts.

J. R. Brooke, Oriel College, Oxford, won the first Haileybury first in Mods.

Proposal that "Haileybury Wanderers" should be started; that some one should be chosen to regulate B.B.S. and 2nd xi. matches.

Wellington beat us:—H. 94 and 116; W. 184 and 23 for no wickets. We won the Racquets.

1869.3.—The Committee of Games was instituted.

The Haileyburian records with gratification that it has received favourable notice in the Guardian.

The Portrait of Rev. A. G. Butler, by G. Richmond, R.A., arrived, and was hung in Hall.

Lawrence House Entertainment as usual.

In the "Occasional Notes" we read: "Efforts are being made to get a distinctive badge for the School Twenty to wear in undress." Hence the familiar silver heart.

1870.1.—"The School Library, which has been considerably enlarged, has been removed to the Upper Sixth Class room." (This was what at present is Mr. Hoare's form-room, next door to Mr. Couchman's.) A new block of form-rooms, including the Museum, L.V., and adjacent rooms had been recently built. The "Cockpit" and a Modern Side room, lighted by sky-lights, had been swept away, and the roof was heightened to the same level as Mr. Hensley's house.)

"The Committee of Games has decided that the prizes for the athletics shall not be money for the future."

The newly-formed "Glee Club" gave a concert.

The system of marking for the Ball now in use was finally adopted after much discussion.

At Prince's Spens and Pollock were beaten by Rugby 4—2.

1870.2.—We were beaten by Wellington. W. 147 and 82; H. 61 and 167; J. Spens, not out, 68. Professional umpires, Cæsar and Mortlock, this year.

"Haileybury Wanderers" began.

1870.3.—Article in Haileyburian on "Boys won't be boys."

The "Lawrence House Entertainment" ceased as a School institution, partly because the dormitory was not strong enough to sustain the crowds.

The "Pastimes" began, in Hall, at the end of term as a regular institution. (See note on p. 353.)

1871.1.—A system of marking for Paper Chases was introduced.

Harrow, the ultimate winners, beat us at Prince's.

1871.2.—The Eleven beat the Masters for the first time.

The School broke up a month before time on account of the scarlet fever.

1871.3.—First Haileybury Scratch Fours at Cambridge.

Suggestion that "Edmonstone" and the other House names should be used instead of "Mr. Couchman's" and so on, in the Blue Book. [There was then much difficulty in prevailing on people to use the House names.]

197 volumes of the old East India College Library were presented by the India Office.

1872.1.—The Modern Side was finally arranged in forms like the Classical. (Its designations had been various — "Modern Form," "English Form," "Modern School—Upper, Middle, Lower.")

1872.2.—Athletics held this term on account of the wet weather.

Beaten by Uppingham. U. 394; H. 43 and 81.

The Gymnasium was refitted and placed, with the School of Arms, under the care of an instructor. [It was before open to any one without supervision, and the floor was some inches deep in tan. The School of Arms, which was run up as a temporary building when Mr. Arthur Butler found that Sergt. Campbell, of the Mounted Police, could box, disappeared in February, 1887.]

We beat Wellington after a most exciting finish, when Wellington had three wickets to fall and nine runs to get. Hodgson and Hill shared the bowling honours. H. 121 and 75; W. 69 and 123.

Wellington won Double Racquets, Haileybury Single.

Bengeo played Hailey House and were beaten.

Proposal for a "Restoration" day for lost and borrowed books. [There is now a lesson about the middle of each term devoted to a "Revision of books."]

1872.3.—N.S.S. started on November 6th. R. W. Bowyer, Esq., President. F. Podmore, Secretary. Committee, G. J. Howson, W. E. Smith, C. H. Wingfield.

"Books to be read next term" first added at the end of the Blue Book.

1873.1.—"Agra Mission" started, with Rev. F. J. Hall as Secretary and Treasurer.

The "Red Book" began.

Hailey House Athletics.

J. R. Twisden read the first paper at the N.S.S. on "Structure and Classification of Phenogamous Plants."

Extraordinary meeting of N. S. S. for discussion of "Helix Pomatia," or edible snails, from Gallows Hill.

1873.2.—Beaten by Uppingham. H. 160 and 59; U. 169 and 53.

J. W. Ewing 58 and 11.

Beaten by Wellington. H. 45 and 75; W. 237. We lost the Racquets as well.

"Six elevens" started, with a Captain to arrange the matches. [This system was abandoned in 1879.]

Hailey House Concert.

1873.3.—Home addresses were added in the Red Book. (Birthdays were first given in 1891.1.)

"Carmen Haileyburiense" published.

O.H.s at Cambridge played C. C. C. This was seemingly the first O.H. football match at either University.

1874.1.—The "Antiquarian Society" was founded. Rev. F. B.

Butler, President; H. B. Cotterill, Esq., L. S. Milford, and E.

W. Howson, Committee; G. C. P. Williams Freeman, Secretary.

Proposal for a Pavilion on Terrace Ground.

G. Gray came as Racquet Professional.

Beaten by Wellington at Prince's; only a difference of two points at the end.

1874.2.—On May 5th first meeting of the Antiquarian Society.

E. W. Howson read a paper on "The Misereres of Chester, Exeter, and Worcester;" and L. S. Milford on "History and Antiquities of East Knoyle."

Catalogue of Library published.

We avenged many defeats in the Wellington match—W. 62 and 46; H. 435. C. Gurdon, 152 not out; C. J. Blomfield, 53; J. W. Ewing, 55.

Proposal for Archery Club.

In the holidays Haileybury played its first, and at present only, match in London. We beat Rossall at the Oval. R. 74 and 59; H. 234. H. A. Hodgson, the bowler, 84.

1874.3.—The Presidency of the Literary Society was made elective.

Offices of "Chronicler" and "Custodian" created in Antiquarian Society.

"LX" caps now called "XL" caps.

Prefects ceased to be ex-officio on Big Side.

Proposed that the XI have badges.

The School went down to see the Prince and Princess of Wales pass through Hertford on November 28th.

Death of Mr. Jones, the Steward, December 11th. [An "In memoriam" appeared in Haileyburian, vol. iii. pp. 53-55. The pulpit in chapel was erected to his memory. A brass plate with an inscription was put up near the pulpit in March, 1887.]

1875.1.—The rule about XI badges was cancelled.

O.H. club started.

1875.2.—Uppingham, 214; H. 69 and 80.

Wellington match drawn: W. 91 and 130; H. 105 and 99 for three wickets; L. S. Newmarch, 52 not out.

Archery Club started.

1875.3.—Presentation of "Haunchus" to President of Antiquarian Society. [This mysterious wand of office was broken and has disappeared. Mr. Fenning presented a small gong on which the familiar "taps" are more melodiously given at the beginning and close of the meetings.]

G. M. Merivale gave a Challenge Cup for Racquets.

Two teams of Old Boys for the first time.

Jones Memorial, limited to 5s. apiece, amounted to £103.

Proposal that photographs of XI and XX should be framed and hung under the lists in Gymnasium and Pavilion; and that the XX should be changed to XV.

The Pastimes were held in the "New Great School."

[The back way up into the studies, so convenient for those who lingered late in the Bath or Grub Shop, had been closed for some years, and now a new block had been fitted in, comprising the Lawrence and Edmonstone Masters' rooms and other necessities for those Dormitories, and a new Great School in front. A yawning chasm for a time replaced the old Great School, which was itself the Library of the East India College. In old days the Preparation Master stepped straight from Common Room into the Great School—into which the boys could precede him or, it must be added, follow him through the friendly curtain which waved at the door.]

1876.1.—"The new Chapel has at length been begun. The first sod was turned by the Master during the Christmas holidays, and the first three bricks were laid by the first three boys on Tuesday, February 8th."

Letter against loafing, and in favour of more organized exercise in Easter term.

1876.2.—"Haileybury Verses" (first series) published.

Harrow beat us at Prince's.

First "Oxford letter" in Haileyburian.

First Haileybury Scratch Fours at Oxford.

Mr. H. B. Cotterill lectured before starting for Lake Nyassa.

Dr. Bradby's new application of "Bis dat qui cito dat" in speaking of Chapel Subscriptions.

Draw with Wellington: H. 163 and 217; W. S. Gurney, 62, and W. D. Hamilton, 64. W. 146 and 56 for five wickets.

We beat Wellington at Racquets.

"Games" rather than "Houses" advocated on Little Side at Football.

1876.3.—"Games" adopted.

Suggestion of "Bars" for football; that the province of the "Occasional Notes" should be enlarged.

1877.1.—The idea of forming an Old Wellingtonian and an Old Haileyburian Social Club at Oxford finally abandoned.

Oxford O.H.s v. Cambridge O.H.s at Oxford, March 14.

Proposals for Lawn Tennis Club; for House Ribbon to be restricted to House XIs; for House Quartettes.

R. T. Allen presented Quarter-mile Challenge Cup.

1877.2.—Singing competition instituted. Lawrence won quartette with R. T. Milford, F. H. Montresor, C. G. N. Trollope, F. W. Hayne. W. D. Hamilton won treble, W. R. Pollock bass solo. Both in Trevelyan.

"The paths are gradually being laid with asphalt, a great improvement to the hard and uneven gravel. Outside the quadrangle we find the terrace field enlarged" (the tall elm near the dell was the original limit) "and the whole place opened out by the removal of unnecessary wall and paling. But to crown the whole we have at last obtained the great object of our desires, and the dome of a new Chapel towers above our heads in simple but stately grandeur."

The Chapel was consecrated on June 27, and it was permanently used after July 15.

Haileybury passed into the new diocese of S. Albans.

We were beaten by Uppingham. U. 278; H. 48 and 56.

Drew with Wellington. H. 107 and 146 (M. H. Jackson 27 and 37); W. 124 and 57 for seven wickets.

First match v. M.C.C.

1877.3.—XV started and consequently the "XXX" superseded the XL.

G. Dorset retired from his post as porter, and was presented by the School with a clock, and purse of £16. G. Campbell left the School of Arms and succeeded to the lodge.

The organ fund was started.

"House Grounds" proposed for cricket.

1878.1.—House athletics started.

Beaten by Harrow at Prince's.

1878.2.—Beaten by Wellington. W. 103 and 30; H. 36 and 41.

O.H.s had a cricket week in France.

Proposal to have one day a week reserved for form matches.

1878.3.—Burning of the Chapel, Friday, October 4th. The following account appeared in the Haileyburian :—

THE FIRE.

"Our holy and our beautiful house is burned up with fire."—Isaiah lxiv. 11.

"Violent fires soon burn out themselves."—Shak. Richard II.

On Friday, October the 4th, a terrible disaster befell us. To prevent any unwarrantable exaggeration of the circumstances, we will print them here as accurately and concisely as we can. In a word, our beautiful dome, built after so much deliberation, and at so great an expense, has been suddenly burnt down; but the walls of the chapel, and the octagon on which it rested, have, as far as we can judge at present, not suffered seriously. The causes of the disaster have been clearly explained. For a few days past the ventilator in the centre of the dome has been under repair. A skilled and experienced workman, who had superintended the building of the dome, and understood its construction, was sent down by the contractors to do the work. On Friday, the 4th, at about a quarter to five, he had completed his task, and was making his way with difficulty along the narrow beams which were laid at intervals above the plaster of the inner dome, when his foot slipped, and the lighted candle, with the aid of which he had been doing his work, flew from his hand against the hair-felt, with which the shaft connecting the ventilator with the cupola was cased, and at once ignited it. A great flame burst forth, which the unfortunate man strove to quell with his coat and the carpet on which he had been kneeling. But it was of no avail, the fire was spreading rapidly. He stopped in the dome till he was nearly suffocated, and then rushed down to summon all the aid he could. Soon after five o'clock the fire had been observed in all the form-rooms, and the whole school was in the quadrangle, every one wishing to do some good, but few finding any work to do in the first moments of excitement.

The eagle and the harmonium had been removed, and also as many books as could be got at without danger, for already the hot lead was falling fast. Happily what little wind there was happened to be in the right direction, and blew the flame towards the north away from the surrounding buildings. Our own engine was soon on the scene, and was supplied with water from the cistern. Meanwhile bicyclists or riders had started for Ware, Hertford, and Hoddesdon; and before or soon after six the engines from these three towns had appeared. About this time the flames were at their highest, and to any one who could for a moment forget the awfulness of the disaster, the spectacle was indeed grand and beautiful. There was, as it seemed, a transparent network of fire, for just the outline of the wood-work and the lantern was visible.

Every minute the great flaming beams came thundering down upon the oak seats and flooring below. As the engines could not possibly reach to the top of the dome, they had been deluging the walls and seats, and the interior of the chapel. They were supplied for the most part by long lines of boys, who passed on one side the full, on the other the empty buckets. Water was at first procured thus from the Moorhen Pond until the water was found too dirty for use. Then lines were formed to the water tower, and subsequently very long ones to the bath, and these last worked hard at the tiring task of passing and repassing heavy buckets from about half-past six till half-past nine. By that time the fire had been got well under, though the flames had not quite gone down, and there was no further dread of its spreading. Our own engine, which had been supplied from the cistern, was working well, and the drenching of the lower parts of the Chapel had prevented the downward spreading of the fire.

By ten o'clock the dense crowd which had assembled began to disperse, and the boys were hurrying off to the dormitories, as their assistance could now be dispensed with.

During the night a careful watch was kept, and two of the fire-engines were at hand in case of a further outbreak, but fortunately none occurred. In the morning the only external signs of the fire were a faint smouldering, and the octagon, with its elegant brickwork scarcely scorched at all, standing out bare against the sky. It was wonderful to notice how clean the action of the fire had been; it had just burnt away the dome and nothing more. But the view inside was certainly appalling, though we were thankful to see how apparently little damage had befallen the walls and the carving. The seats were covered with the débris, which awaited the inspection of the insurance officers. Still more plainly from within could we see how accurately the fire had swept away the dome, while the octagon was scarcely touched. Not a window was broken, except those which had been purposely pierced for the admission of the pipes. Two of the seats were utterly burnt; but the greater part of them, though much soiled, had escaped the violence of the fire, by the opportune drenching they had received. The altar appeared totally unhurt. The carving, though much discoloured, was scarcely chipped. The gas standards were for the most part wrenched down by the weight of the falling timber. The nave had escaped all damage from the fire, and only bore signs of the water with which it had been soaked. So much for the bare account, imperfect as it is, of this melancholy mishap. The members of the school have publicly received the thanks of the Master for their ready assistance. But surely it was the bounden duty of each boy to do what he could at such a moment. Probably also the men who worked so willingly at the engines have received thanks enough. Many of us can bear witness to the energy and devotion with which the servants of the College did their work, and especially to the brave efforts of the originator of the fire. For one thing we must be especially thankful—our providential preservation from any loss of life, amongst all the dangers of so terrible a fire.

O.H. club gave up Football.

The N.S.S. and Antiquarian held their first combined Exhibition in the Big School.

F. W. Bourdillon's "Among the Flowers," the first O.H. volume of poetry, was published.

Suggestion to have age only as standard for athletics.

1879.1.—"The Rev. E. H. Bradby has been installed Honorary Canon of S. Alban's Cathedral." (There are no endowed Canonries, owing to the Abbey's recent accession to Diocesan rank.)

The Berkhamstead Run was revived after a lapse of four years. Small temporary organ in chapel.

"Madrigal Club" started.

In Memoriam to Coghill and Hodson started.

Suggestion for a panel in Chapel for recording the names of O.H.s who have died.

The 100 yards was run in strings for the first time.

At Prince's Haileybury beat Winchester, but was beaten by the winners, Harrow.

1879.2.—Lower Ground Cup presented by Mr. Fenning.

"Of the Big Side games there is simply nothing to record, as the ground has been so dreadfully wet that none have been played for weeks."

Beaten by Uppingham on a soaking wicket, near the Field Racquet Court. U. 64 and 62; H. 25 and 66. G. W. Rawlins played through the innings for 26.

On Speech Day the "sumptuous luncheon" of former years gave way to lighter refreshments in tents.

Wellington beat us by eight wickets.

Proposal to have Caffyn as "cricket coach and barber."

A tablet in memory of J. H. Pratt was put up in Chapel. A prize for Greek Verse was founded to bear his name.

In the holidays C. D. Argles, Esq., was drowned in the Thames near Cookham. A tablet in Chapel and a Hexameter prize perpetuate his name.

1879.3.—In the Editorial we read:—"It is only a year since the foundations of the new buildings were laid, but they have gradually grown, been finished, and are now opened and in use. The middle of the three new dormitories is occupied entirely by new boys, with two prefects drafted in from other houses; while the top and half of the lower is temporarily filled with Hailey House boys, as their House has been partly pulled down to be re-built on a different system."

The new organ was opened by Mr. P. H. Diemer.

"The name of the new House which is opened is 'Batten House,' and the cap is orange stripes on an olive ground," (This faded too rapidly and so the present colour was adopted.)

"L.M. ii. and the third forms have been divided into two parallel divisions to accommodate the increased number of the School."

Besides other changes the loggias were blocked up, the gallery was built in Hall, "Elysium" and Study Number 2 were thrown into one form room,* the four Study passages were made into two, and three single studies were gained by the closing of two entrances. Six new fives courts were built to replace the old ones into which the non-quad studies used to look. (See a letter on "New Haileybury," Haileyburian, vol. iv. pp. 325, 326.)

"House Annals" proposed.

Cock House match, owing to frost, had to be decided on one day's play. [See 1882.3.]

1880.1.—Le Bas House opened.

Proposals for each house to practise a glee for the singing competition; for successful bowlers to be rewarded in House matches as well as successful batsmen.

House paper chases introduced.

First O.H. dinner, in March.

1880.2.—"Hailey House is now in use again, and takes its place among the other houses." [In old days Hailey was the house for the Lower School—as Thomason was for the smaller boys in College. From each boys were drafted on to other houses.]

Melvill House opened.

Chapel Decorations unveiled.

New Library used this term.

Wellington, 121 and 65; H. 55 and 32.

Uppingham, 258; H. 71 and 96.

First year of the "Gentlemen of Herts."

On Speech Day "a large tent on one of the grass plots replaced the famous pent-house."

The first flower show was held.

Presidency of Literary Society—lately held ex-officio by Head of the School—made elective.

Proposal to change from XX.s to XV.s.

Jones memorial pulpit erected in Chapel.

1880.3.—Suggestions that each study should keep a record of former inhabitants; that "stars" should be abolished; that pent-houses for football coats be erected; that objects of general art be admitted to the exhibition of the two Societies: that House matches last only one day (instead of possibly three), and be decided by the score at the end of the day; that there be draws for Little Side football; that there be a list of leaving fellows in the first Haileyburian of each term; that there be Association Football in Easter term; that there

* Now the "Parents Room."—Ed.

be Inter-House Gymnastics ; that there be a systematic record of O.H.s.

1881.1.—The School re-assembled with much punctuality in spite of the great snow storm.

Hockey started.

Inter-House Gymnastics began.

A mixed scheme of height and age introduced for athletics.

3rd Set Quarter replaced 3rd Set 200 yards.

Secretaries of Athletics, Cricket, and Football decided upon.

Organ finally completed by addition of Cornopean stop.

Junior Literary Society started. President, R. G. Legge. Vice-President, E. Malden. Secretary, A. C. Blomfield. Committee, W. A. Wheeler, J. T. W. Perowne.

Suggestions that "Middle Game" at cricket be abolished ; that the walls of the Bat Fives Courts be washed with some darker colour.

J. S. Whatton offered a Racquet Challenge Cup in place of the one which R. V. Steward had won for three successive years.

First "Praeteritus" letter.

Death of George Dorset, aged 72. A tablet was put up in Chapel to his memory, and the remainder of the Memorial fund was paid in quarterly instalments to his widow. For In Memoriam see Haileyburian, vol. v. pp. 104-105.

1881.2.—The Exhibitions were increased in number, and Senior Scholarships instituted.

The old black palings before Hailey House were replaced by railings.

Suggestions that Little Side should play during foreign matches ; that there should be a place where names could be cut by a recognized authority for a definite sum ; that there be encouragement given to drawing, painting, and piano playing.

The "Rising Sun" in Hailey Lane became College property, and was changed into cottages.

The Uppingham match was given up, and measles prevented us from playing Wellington.

Hailey had its first member of School XI.

1881.3.—A Ceylon O.H. suggests that the "Haileyburian should appoint agents or correspondents in each colony."

Drill on the Terrace.

"Melvill have exchanged their four pink stripes, which faded too quickly, for four red."

"Hailey House has now got two home-grown prefects."

Suggestions that the various Houses should give Entertainments in turn in the Big School; that some brief account of the origin and aim of the present school should be prefixed to the Blue Book; that there should be headings to letters in Haileyburian; that the divisions of the forms should be inserted in the Red Book.

The "New Field" was in use this term, being approached by a flat bridge near the Field Racquet Court.

A fearful storm of wind.

"Little Twenties" (afterwards called "2nd XXs") began.

"Prefects Book" started.

Library Tickets first issued.

"Reading Room" gained its first recognition in the pages of the Haileyburian.

Hailey, which was Cock House, did not have a single try scored against them.

1882.1.—"Haileybury Psalter" brought out.

"'Sally's,' both Upper and Lower, is now a thing of the past."

First Concert of Junior Literary Society.

Melvill revived the custom of House Athletics in the Avenue.

House Entertainments started on Saturday evenings, by the House for the House.

White flannel shirts no longer restricted to Big Side.

1882.2.—The School took over the management of the Grub Shop.

The New Houses Glee Club gave their first annual concert.

"O.H. Gymnasium and Pavilion Fund" started.

Proposals for a School Register; that the O.H. dinner should be held on one night of University match.

Rules for B. B. S. revised.

Houses started cricket boxes.

Fag list drawn out for the term.

We lost Wellington match by one wicket. H. G. M. Amos 55.

E. B. Raikes 6 wickets for 31 in second innings. Wellington won the Racquets.

"The new system of drawing every House in turn against every other has been most successful on Little Side."

Suggestion to apply same system to B. B. S. football.

O.H. week in Scotland.

The levelling of the new piece of the Pavilion field was begun.

"Middle VI.th" revived.

"To Melvill belongs the honour of having produced the first home-born prefect in the New Houses. Batten had the first in the XV, Le Bas the first in the XI."

1882.3.—House matches limited to one day.

"Book Revision" started.

Second series of "Haileybury Verses" published. •

Suggestions for an O.H. Football Club; for opening of Carpenter's shop in the evening to Upper School; for compulsory drill for Lower School; for a Haileybury Song Book; for Inter-Public School Athletics with Uppingham and Wellington.

Mr. Hall left for Wymondley.

1883.1.—A straight finish arranged for all races in the athletics.

Death of Mr. Butler, on March 28th. [Ultimately a "Brisbane Butler" Shakespeare Prize was founded in his memory. A tablet was put up in Chapel. Enlarged permanent photographs were hung in Edmonstone and in the form room used by the Antiquarian Society, and a selected portion of his books were bought for the School Library.]

1883.2.—Grub Shop enlarged and beautified.

Second O.H. dinner, on first night of University match.

Mr. Walford resigned after more than twenty years' service. He was almost immediately after offered a living by the Dean and Chapter of S. Paul's, which he declined, and in Feb. 1884 the Crown living of Ewelme by Mr. Gladstone, as Prime Minister, which he accepted.

Death of Jack Howe.

1883.3.—Haileybury came of age in September. Rev. A. G. Butler preached in Chapel on October 7th.

Matthew Campbell's fields, near Goose Green, hired for football. House XVs suggested.

The Art Section found a home in Mr. Whyte's form room. (This is the room at present occupied by Mr. Hoare.)

Controversy in the newspapers on "Questionable Questions."

"Could an occasional hour be given in form to an explanation of every-day events as they appear in the newspapers?"

Dr. Bradby announced his retirement. The following appeared in the Haileyburian:—

DR. BRADBY'S RETIREMENT.

"It is idle to attempt to conceal the fact that our Christmastide this year is overshadowed by a sense of bereavement. In a few days, we might almost say hours, after these lines are published, the link which has bound generation after generation of Haileyburians to a honoured and beloved Head Master will be finally severed. Before the year is out Dr. Bradby's official connection with our School will have terminated. It is not our purpose, nor would it be altogether becoming, to indulge in anything approaching to a critical survey of the career of him whose impending departure we so deeply deplore. The history of Haileybury has yet to be written, and until that task is accomplished, we can hardly hope that full justice will be done to the work of one of her twin-founders. Ours be it to indicate a few of the debts of gratitude which we owe to him. Assuming the reins of government early in 1868, and armed with the experience of a Harrow House Master, Mr. Bradby found himself face to face with a problem of no ordinary difficulty. Haileybury had been in existence for less than six years, and had started from nothing, yet it was a very marvel of precocity, and those who had the opportunity of studying its inner life and the material already formed, felt safe in predicting that no ordinary University distinctions would fall to its lot. A great position was in course of being achieved in a country where public schools were already so numerous and excellent, and it is not too much to say that the world at large began to regard ours in Hertfordshire with interest and expectation. No Haileyburian needs to be told that this achievement was due in a great measure to the devotion of Mr. Butler to the creation of a worthy companion to Marlborough and Wellington, and to the incessant labour involved in the enterprise. The success so far as it went was complete, but it was purchased at the heavy cost of his health. He resigned his post, or rather repeated a former unaccepted resignation, and Mr. Bradby succeeded to his responsibilities and to his as yet unfinished work. The position had been gained, but it had to be strengthened and maintained, and even to be boldly extended. An ordinary man might have been content to allow the school to go on just as it was, and being numerically weak, and having no other traditions than those of recent growth, in course of time it might have subsided into a large private school, producing its quota of trained scholars, but doing little to infuse a worthy spirit into the hearts of young Englishmen. A 'doctrinaire,' on the other hand, might have overturned the existing order of things, and have endeavoured to reconstruct the institution on entirely new lines. Mr. Bradby's course was essentially diverse from either of these. Cordially accepting the conditions of the situation, entering fully into the large views and aims of his predecessor—he resolved that Haileybury should flourish, and flourish as an English public school; he set to work to consolidate and systematise, to prune and develope, and in all such development to pave the way for the greater extension which he felt was inevitable. What he wished Haileybury boys, and therefore the Haileybury men to be, may be gathered from the following extract from his beautiful 'Carmen Haileyburiense'—

'Felix prole sua, viris
Felix qui patriam colant,
Qui Deum venerentur,
Haileyburia floreat.'

Looking back now over the 16 years of his administration of our school, and reckoning up the long tale of those who have come up under his influence, and who are now, here or elsewhere, endeavouring to do justice to the lessons taught by his precept and example, we venture with all respect to congratulate him on having in no small degree attained his lofty ideal, on having nobly won his noble purposes. Hitherto we have spoken of Dr. Bradby's mastership in somewhat general terms. We feel we shall not now weary our readers if we now lightly touch on a few of the leading incidents of his reign. As has been already said, it was early in 1868 that he came into residence, and we note with pride, that within two months of that event, the first number of our School Magazine appeared in print. In the third number it will be observed that mention is made of the fact that Speech Day was attended by a larger assemblage than previously, and this phenomenon is attributed to 'a general wish to do honour to our New Head Master.' This is interesting, as indicating from the first that he had the good will of the Council and the County. In November, 1868, the 'Literary Society' was started under Mr. Bradby's auspices, and this was but the precursor of other institutions of a kindred nature. Thus, in 1872, the 'Natural Science Society' first saw light, to be followed after an interval by the 'Antiquarian Society,' while the 'Indian Mission'—valuable as a link with the country where the name of Haileybury has long been held in honour—was also organized in 1872. These may appear to outsiders very trivial affairs, but to us at Haileybury they are a boon, and like all else that flourishes here, they owe much to the master spirit of the place. The great movement, however, with which Dr. Bradby's name will be especially and permanently associated is our New Chapel. Keeping in view the inevitable increase in the numbers of the school, he not only arranged for the provision of dwelling-houses, and rooms for study, but also devoted infinite pains to securing a worthy place of worship.

Early in 1874 the first note of appeal for aid was sounded: in three months nearly £4000 had been subscribed; in January, 1876, the work was commenced, and on the ever-memorable 27th of June, 1877, the new and stately building was consecrated. The burning down of the dome in the following year is an incident which scarcely calls for mention here, save in that, owing to the indomitable spirit of our Master, it was a mere accident, and that no unworthy compromise was made in its re-erection. In mention with this subject it may be recorded that in March, 1879, Mr. Bradby was installed as Honorary Canon of S. Albans; and that last year he received the distinction of Doctor of Divinity. For a notice of the leading facts of the latter part of the period under review we commend our readers to an article in our impression of March 25th, 1882, entitled 'What the last few years have done at Haileybury.' In this seven years' retrospect reference is made to the opening of the new buildings in the Christmas term, 1879, and the consequent simultaneous development of the school by a system of parallel forms. On this and on kindred topics we would gladly dwell, did space permit, but for the present we must content ourselves with pointing out that the opening of the chapel and the enlargement of the school were but the crowning acts of a settled policy for the development of the school on a broad and lasting basis. Dr. Bradby may indeed be well satisfied with the success of his work, and though his voluntary and we can well believe self-sacrificing act of retirement from the scene of his labour, deprives him of reaping all their fruits, yet even when absent from our midst, we know full well that his mind will often turn to those whom he loved so truly, and for whose higher interests he worked so unceasingly. Let him be assured in turn that his influence will ever abide in their hearts, and that, if they need an additional incentive to manly effort in the world that lies before them, it will be furnished them by the thought that wherever their lot may be cast, they may do credit to their school, and to him to whom that school was so incomparably dear.

We cannot conclude our imperfect expression of the thoughts which at this juncture occupy the minds of Haileyburians, without tendering our acknowledgments to Mrs. Bradby and her family for the rare tact with which they have helped on our school life. The rôle that they have played has been important, and although in the nature of things they have been debarred from participation in a large portion of our duties and pleasures, yet, wherever their influence could be exercised with advantage, it has been bestowed graciously and without stint. Not only those elder ones among us, who have seen more of Mrs. Bradby, and

Dr. Bradby preached in Chapel on September 26th for the first time since he left.

Haileybury Register begun.

Lower Pavilion field is used for football this term.

"Is the O.H. Club to die or not?"

1887.1.—The Rifle Corps became a reality, and took part in the Public Schools Field Day at Aldershot.

H. Legge won Public Schools Boxing.

The Bradby Memorial Hall and other new buildings were begun.

The Gymnasium was temporarily fitted into the Field Racquet Court, a Carpenter's Shop was made an annexe to the outside of the Racquet Court.

Mr. Jeans left for Mottistone-cum-Shorwell in the Isle of Wight.

1887.2.—Archdeacon Gibson gave a lecture in the Big School on his work in Kaffraria.

The School kept the Queen's Jubilee very loyally. A day of varied amusement was ended by fireworks in the Quadrangle and a bonfire in M. Campbell's Field near Goose Green.

Uppingham beat us by 9 wickets. F. L. C. Hamilton 69 and 21.

There was not time to play out the Wellington match. They made 111 and 63, we 138 and 240. Hamilton 13 and 41, F. B. Morgan 4 and 56, W. W. A'Deane 22 and 35, D. C. Bartley 45 and 12. In 2nd innings A. M. Batty took 4 wickets for 28, bowling 23 maidens out of 34 overs. M. Lamb took 4 wickets for 11.

We beat Wellington, in our own court, at Racquets.

The Eight made its first appearance at Wimbledon, and was 3rd for the Ashburton Shield, only ten points behind Eton, the winners.

1887.3.—"Mr. Deedes has resigned the Secretaryship which he has held since the foundation of the School."

"A new entry appeared in the Blue Book last term. Another Exhibition of £50 by gift of the Rev. C. J. Marshall is available every third year."

The Register was published in November.

"Morris Tube practice has been actively carried on at a range at the back of the Laundry wall."

"The New Gymnasium was opened on Nov. 23 with a brilliant performance by Sergeant-Major Noakes and three other instructors from Aldershot."

Requests for Umpires for Second XX.s; for more favour to Cyclists; to have the same motion moved simultaneously in both Literary Societies; to have a Haileybury Art Magazine.

"India" was made a special feature in the Exhibition.

1888.1.—Mr. Hawkins appointed Gymnasium Master. New Gymnasium in use.

Mr. Clark died at Bournemouth on March 5. The whole School attended his funeral at Little Amwell (The Heath) Church.

Dr. Bradby read the Service. "In Memoriam" in Haileyburian of April. There is a tablet in Chapel to his memory.

H. Legge was equal first in Boxing at Aldershot.

The School broke up early, and 1888.2.—The Athletics and Singing Competition were held in the Summer Term.

The Bradby Hall was opened. The Master of Trinity spoke at the lunch.

"Our School, the year I was begun,
Her silver wedding's course had run,
Fivefold five circuits of the Sun :—

Nos quintum hoc, decimum clausit Victoria lustrum.

That happy year of years, when she
Whose throne we serve, blessed land and sea
With joy of golden Jubilee."—J. R.

(The Hexameter is over the principal door of the Bradby Buildings.)

The Rifle Corps brought out a card of their shooting matches.

The "Hutt Case."

We beat Uppingham. C. R. Higgins 16 and 32, A. P. Snell 59.

G. V. Wimbush 6 wickets for 21 in 2nd innings, and G. B. Scriven 4 for 17.

Owing to the wet the refreshment tents on Speech Day were pitched on the gravel of the Terrace.

The new Carpenters' shop was in use.

The Masters' Match was revived.

A party from Toynbee Hall came down on June 30.

Mrs. Dorset left the Clock House at the end of the Term.

We lost the Wellington match by 8 wickets. B. Hamilton 23 and 25, A. G. Stubbs 18 and not out 13. The weather is described as "a football day." We won the Racquets.

Gymnasium opened from after tea to preparation. Mr. Dove presented prizes for Scratch Pairs.

O.H. dinner in Melbourne, Australia, on July 18.

1888.3.—Retrospect of Cricket of last four years in Haileyburian, and of Football in last seven years.

New form rooms in Bradby Buildings occupied.

"Drying Rooms" in the New Buildings.

The "Twenty Acre Field" again hired for Football.

An O.H. Football Club revived with A. P. Koe as Secretary.

Printed forms supplied to Heads of Houses for collecting subscriptions.

The Secretary, Rev. L. Deedes, died Nov. 4. In memoriam by Dr. Bradby in Haileyburian.

N.S.S. published the "Flora and Fauna of Haileybury."

Confirmation on March 20th.

The Rifle Corps joined in the Public Schools Field Day at Aldershot on March 25th.

B. Hamilton and J. Howard beat Wellington at Queen's Club, (63 to 27) but lost to Eton (63 to 72).

At Aldershot C. H. Surtees and W. J. Keen were 4th for the Gymnastic Shield. H. F. Le Fanu was equal first with J. F. W. Taylor of Rugby in Boxing (heavy weights).

1889.2.—Tremendous storm of thunder and lightning on June 6th.

Quadrangle was filled with spectators from after Chapel till 10. Some Golf on Goose Green, but "the ponds are rather trying, as golf balls sink."

Sergeant and Mrs. Campbell left the Lodge, with the regret and the good wishes of all.

Proposal for revival of "Games" at Football.

Wellington beat us in an innings (J. Howard, 54; A. Finch three wickets for 19 runs). We won the Racquets.

J. B. Winter (O.H.) was ninth for Queen's Prize at Wimbledon.

Triennial O.H. dinner, with W. Hayes Fisher (O.H.), M.P., in the chair, on July 2nd.

Mr. F. P. Barraud came down to make the water-colour drawings for the Haileybury pictures in Dickinson and Foster's Public School Series.

We lost Uppingham match. U. 298; H. 94 and 131 (A. P. Snell 18 and 36; A. Finch 12 and 39. J. Howard five wickets for 82).

The Corps joined in the Public Schools Camp at Churn. The idea of the scheme, which proved very successful, was initiated by our officers.

1889.3.—“The plaster in the Bradby Hall has been painted green. Some casts have been placed there to form the nucleus of an Art Museum.”

The Holy Land and Egypt were the countries specially illustrated in the Exhibition.

The proposed match at Haileybury, “Richmond v. O.H.s,” fell through. “Games” were revived, on days when Big Side can look on and mark.

Dr. Bradby preached in Chapel Oct. 20.

“Songs Sung at Haileybury,” edited by Rev. H. C. Wright, came out at the end of the term, but the book was not in general use until next term.

Discussion in Haileyburian on wearing cricket coats before football.

1890.1.—Mr. Robertson resigned during the holidays. The Haileyburian of April 9 contained an article of warm regret and hearty farewell. He did not leave until the end of the term.

L. R. Lempriere (1st), and W. J. Keen (3rd), won the Public School Gymnastic Shield, scoring 96½. Cheltenham were second with 87. The Daily Graphic had a wonderful picture of the procession round the quadrangle, as well as some views of the College. G. A. Packe was second for Light Weight Boxing, and M. S. D. Butler was second in Fencing.

A Scottish Haileyburian team scored a victory in Edinburgh during the holidays, as Irish Haileyburian teams have done several times in Dublin.

Influenza was rife at Haileybury as everywhere else in England.

One Form of 20 was for a time reduced to 8.

Colvin won the Jullundur Cup for the sixth time in succession.

Mr. Gilson left to take a mastership at Harrow.

We were beaten by Winchester at Queen’s Club.

1890.2.—Mr. Lyttelton entered upon his Head Mastership. Quod felix faustum fortunatumque sit.

Choral Service on Sundays and Saints’ Days. A lesson in Chapel every evening, and not only on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Leave to come into dinner in flannels extended to the whole School.

New edition of the Appendix.

“Upper School Singing” has become an institution on the last night of Easter and Summer terms.

J. B. Eastley won the Inter-Public Schools Quarter at Lillie Bridge.

An Assault-at-Arms in Gymnasium after the Speeches.

Many meetings of Antiquarian and N.S.S. held in the Bradby Hall.

Professor Blackie lectured on "Greek a living language."

"O.H. Guild" started after a meeting held in the Church House on July 7. Eventually the first Council chosen consisted of Rev. and Hon. E. Lyttelton, Canon Kirkpatrick, Rev. A. de M. Hensley, E. P. Ash, W. E. Russell, Rev. L. S. Milford, Rev. E. Hoskyns, E. T. Gurdon, W. S. Cope, R. C. Gilson, F. H. Trench, J. Howard.

The Rev. R. C. Dolling spoke to the Upper School in Bradby Hall in support of the scheme on July 14.

The Uppingham match could not be played. Wellington beat us. W. 199 and 37 for two wickets; H. 142 and 94. (D. M. M. Bartlett 43 and 11, J. B. Eastley 36 and 20.) Woodhouse, our fast bowler, was hurt early in the game.

Many of the Corps again went to camp at Churn.

1890.3.—"The Racquet Court, thanks to the generosity of M. S. D. Butler, was coated with racquette during the holidays."

Mr. Ash presented a shield from Ilsenburg as a terminal trophy for the House which wins most prizes.

Mr. Russell began his duties as Bursar.

We entered upon possession of the "Twenty Acre Field," which was mainly bought with the savings of the Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyttleton sang in Big School for the first time.

Mr. Lewis published a small collection of his "Chants, Kyries, and Hymns."

The new Bishop of S. Albans (Dr. Festing) held his first Confirmation in Chapel on Nov. 19.

O.H. Guild began work in Stepney.

We were beaten in our first School Football match by Bedford. Neither side scored until half time.

"House matches have been played off with most praiseworthy regularity. It is much to be hoped that in future years we shall adhere to the admirable rule of fixing a day by which the draw must be finished, and keeping to it whether A or B can play their full teams or not."

"The form room over the Book Room and the Steward's Room have been turned into two Parents' Reception Rooms."

The Haileybury Etchings were published by Messrs. Dickinson and Foster.

Messrs. Elsdon brought out a "Souvenir of Haileybury," a dozen process pictures in a small book.

Miss Ashley presented the School with a large telescope.

One of the Hailey House Form Rooms has been set apart as a Natural Science Museum.

The Bradby Hall was regularly used for the meetings of the Natural Science and Antiquarian Societies.

The costumières and scene painters surpassed all their former efforts in "Julius Caesar" in the Pastimes.

1891.1.—The Head Master gave a practical and very humorous lecture on the "Health of the Body" in the Bradby Hall.

History Lectures once a week in all forms. "Each form below U.M.1 has one English lesson, and reading aloud is to be a special feature of these."

At Aldershot L. R. Lempriere again won the Silver Medal, and the pair only failed by one mark and a half to win the Shield for the second time. E. B. Milnes won the Fencing.

The Literary Society resolved to make all members of the Upper School eligible, and to increase the numbers to fifty.

Date card introduced.

In the holidays our Racquet pair were beaten at Queen's Club by Rugby.

Mr. Marshall left Bengeo for parish work at Shillingstone, in Dorsetshire.

Suggestions in Haileyburian for a "School Blazer," Annual O.H. Dinner, Hockey or Lacrosse.

1891.2.—At the end of the prizes in the Blue Book appeared the following notice, "An extra prize of £5 is offered by two Old Haileyburians (Major D. Phelps Chapman, South Lancashire Regt., and A. M. McMurdo, Highland Light Infantry) for the best essay on a Military subject: 'How far do modern changes in ships and armies make England more or less secure?'"

The Bath has been lined with Portland cement, and a high header platform has been put up.

The Field Racquet Court has been turned into four small open fives courts, and the two makeshift courts at the end have been re laid and side walls have been built.

House ribbons can be worn on straw hats by all members of the House. The tie is still confined to the House XI.

Dark blue flannel "blazers" introduced.

Cases for pottery, coins, and other objects placed in the Bradby Hall; and for Natural Science specimens in the New Museum.

Second edition of the "Haileybury Register" published.

Football match with Uppingham arranged.

[I am glad to be able to give a fuller account of the beginnings of the "New Haileybury," written for the second edition of the REGISTER, by the author of "Twenty-one Years Ago," p. xiv.]

Within a year or two of the extinction of the East India Company, the Secretary of State put the estate and buildings of Haileybury up for sale, and on Friday, August 30th, 1861, it was knocked down, by Messrs. Norton and Co., "at the Auction Mart, facing the Bank of England," to the British Land Company for £15,000. This Company bought it as a speculation, to sell again, and throughout the ensuing winter the Directors were looking out for a purchaser. There was talk of the building being turned into an Asylum or a Workhouse, but happily nothing came of this idea.

The Library of the old East India College had not yet been moved, and was temporarily under the care of Mr. Stephen Austin, of Hertford. The duties connected with it brought him frequently to the place, and, perhaps it was during some of these visits that he resolved he would himself strain every nerve, and try and induce others to do the same, to preserve the old College as a place of education, and save it from what he and others looked on as its impending desecration.

Anyhow, in November, 1861, he journeyed over to Watton Rectory, to see Mr. Lowther Barrington on the subject, from whom he received promise of energetic aid, and from that date may be traced the inception of modern Haileybury.

To the unwearied exertions and persevering energy of Mr. Austin is to be attributed the success which, after many negotiations and difficulties, resulted in saving the old College from the fate hinted at above; nor should it be forgotten that although Mr. Austin might have realized a considerable sum as commission from the British Land Company for his services, he repudiated any idea of pecuniary compensation, or any personal advantage beyond the gratification of succeeding in this good and valuable work.

Some years later (1879) the Council made a public recognition of this, and at a largely attended meeting presented to Mr. Austin a very handsome Tea and Coffee service and Salver, of the value of one hundred guineas, bearing the following inscription:—

Presented to Stephen Austin, by the Council of Haileybury, in acknowledgment of the services rendered by him toward the establishment of the College, A.D. 1862.

Within a decade or two of that time, two other successful schools had been founded—Marlborough and Rossall, and with the start of both of these the late Dean Bowers of Manchester had had much to do.

It happened that both Mr. Lowther Barrington and Mr. Austin were acquainted with him, and to him their thoughts turned for advice. The Dean readily gave the aid that was asked, and drew up a draft scheme for the Constitution of the proposed School, and it cannot be questioned that to the assistance rendered by the late Dean Bowers in great measure is due the fact that the preliminary difficulties in the way of formulating a practicable scheme were overcome. He specially combated the idea of starting a proprietary school.

Later on, in the month of January, 1862, the Dean came to Hertford, and a meeting was held at Watton Rectory (Mr. Lowther Barrington's), at which Mr. Hanbury, Mr. Robert Smith, Mr. Horace Smith (now Mr. Smith-Bosanquet), Rev. Charles Deedes, and Mr. Austin attended. It was there and then decided to attempt the scheme, and the next week a circular was drawn up appealing to the public for support. Numerous meetings were held during the next month or two, at Mr. Austin's house in Hertford. Many gentlemen of influence in the County became interested in the scheme, and amongst the names of those who (besides those mentioned above) attended these early meetings we find Mr. Jones Loyd, Rev. D. Barclay Bevan, the Right Hon. W. Cowper, M.P., Rev. T. Woodward, Mr. Abel Smith, M.P., and Mr. C. J. Dimsdale.

The obstacles to be overcome were many and great. Differences of opinion as to the constitution of the proposed school threatened to wreck the scheme, and owing to the difficulty that was experienced in finding means to purchase the property, the matter at one point seemed likely to be abandoned.

At this stage the advice of Mr. J. W. Chesshyre, who now for nearly thirty years has been the Treasurer of the College, was sought, and with his usual clear-sightedness he at once saw a way, and undertook to carry out the views of the promoters, and to arrange for the purchase of the property. With his help the matter was soon carried through. The purchase money was £18,000, towards which Mr. Chesshyre found £10,000 as a first mortgage, and arrangements were made with the British Land Company to pay the balance of £8,000 by instalments. Soon after this Mr. Jones Loyd agreed to lend £7,000 on second mortgage, and thus within a short time the entire debt to the vendors was liquidated.

The Rev. T. D. Hudson then came forward, and, to place the school beyond financial difficulty, said the Treasurer might draw on him at any time to the extent of £10,000 without any security, and at times and for many years the school was indebted to him for sums varying from £6,000 to £9,000, and upon all subsequent occasions up to his death in 1889, his purse was always open for providing means to carry out the views of the Council. As an instance of this, when there was some hesitation in beginning the building of the new chapel before the funds were fully collected, he promptly advanced £2,000, having already given a donation of £700 towards it. On the whole there is probably no Governor of the College to whom it is under so many obligations as to the late Rev. T. D. Hudson of Frogmore Hall.

It would take long to enter into details of the various financial difficulties the Council had to encounter at the outset ; but besides Mr. Hudson, the young school had good friends in Mr. Robert Hanbury, Mr. Jones Loyd, Mr. Abel Smith, Mr. Robert Smith, and Mr. Lowther Barrington, each of whom lent considerable sums of money—all of which, together with Mr. Hudson's loan, have long since been repaid.

To return however to the days of the early deliberations. On March 21st, 1862, a meeting was held at Mr. Hanbury's town house, when the scheme was finally confirmed and established. On the 27th the first prospectus was issued by the Hon. Secretaries ("Lewis Deedes and E. D. Bourdillon") stating amid much other information as to terms and objects, etc., that "the school will be opened in the ensuing Autumn."

It was a busy time for the acting members of the new Council. The most anxious point of all was to secure the right sort of Head Master for the new venture.

On April 17th a most happy choice was made, and Arthur Gray Butler was appointed first Master of Haileybury. Only those who lived under his firm but kindly rule, and had daily evidence of his untiring energy and wise government, and the self-sacrificing manner in which he spent both his health and his means on the School, can tell how much Haileybury owes to him.

The College buildings needed considerable adaptation, for which much structural alteration was necessary, and the responsibility of this (subject to the Council's approval) was left to Mr. Butler. It was an anxious task, though in the end the solution was simple. For this solution we owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. H. R. Tomkinson, formerly Bursar of Marlborough College, who came down again and again. He urged that Dormitory, Dormitory Class room, and Bath-room and House Master's rooms should be all close together, and on this plan the buildings were arranged. Sir (then Mr.) Arthur Blomfield gave most valuable help in working out the details of these changes.

But there were countless other questions to be thought out—the securing of Masters, the arranging for equipment and commissariat, the engaging of servants, and the thousand-and-one other things that were needful before the place could be ready for boys, and the brunt of all this fell on Mr. Butler. No one can tell the difficulties and anxieties of those early days.

But any record, however slight, of our early benefactors would be incomplete without some mention of the Rev. Lewis Deedes. He had not attended the earliest meetings to forward the scheme, but when it was settled on, he undertook the post of Secretary, and laboured in that capacity with most untiring energy and devotion for 25 years. His courteous and pleasant manners and excellent business capacity undoubtedly contributed much to the success of the School; for, as Dr. Bradby once said at a Speech Day lunch, “when parents applied to Mr. Deedes about the place, he always wrote back such a charming letter that they never failed to send their boys!”

Founded in 1862, the school grew apace, and in 1864 a Royal Charter was procured. It is dated 30th August, 28 Vict. (1864), and was granted by Her Majesty in Council on the petition of “The most Reverend Father in God, our right trusty and right entirely beloved Councillor, Thomas Archbishop of Canterbury (Longley), and our right trusty and right well-beloved Councillor, James, Marquis of Salisbury, and the right Reverend Father in God, Joseph Cotton, Lord Bishop of Rochester (Wigram).”

The School was now well launched and its position assured.—R.

PRIZES AND EXHIBITIONS.

Five Exhibitions for 60, 50, 50, 40, 20 pounds tenable for three years at Oxford or Cambridge, and in some cases elsewhere, are open yearly for competition to members of the School who are under nineteen years of age. One, or at the most two, may be given for proficiency in other than Classical subjects.

Another Exhibition of £50, by gift of the Rev. C. J. Marshall, is available every third year.

There are open for competition yearly, in December, five Senior Scholarships (three of £40, two of £30) for boys who were between 15 and 16 on the preceding 1st of October, one being tenable on the Modern Side; also four Scholarships of £30 for three years, two of these being for boys under 14 on the 1st October, two under 13.

The following Prizes are also open for annual competition :—

The late R. Hanbury, Esq., has bequeathed the interest of £500 for two prizes annually for knowledge of the Old Testament, and in the Modern Side two prizes for Modern History, and two for Natural Science.

The late Mrs. Bosanquet founded a prize, the interest of £50, for the best examination in a given portion of the New Testament, in English.

The Rev. E. H. McNeile has founded a prize, the interest of £75, for the best examination in a subject taken from the Greek Testament.

The late Rev. T. Cornthwaite founded an annual prize, the interest of £100, to promote the study of Natural History.

A prize has been founded in memory of the late J. H. Pratt, to be called the Pratt Prize for the encouragement of Greek Verse Composition.

A prize has been founded in memory of the late C. D. Argles, to be called the Argles Prize, for the encouragement of translation into Latin Verse.

A prize has been founded, by subscription, in memory of the late Rev. F. Brisbane Butler, to be called the Brisbane Butler Prize, for the encouragement of the study of Shakespeare.

The Council has established annual prizes, to be called the Butler prizes, for the study of English Literature and History.

G. B. Hudson, Esq., gives three prizes annually, amounting to £10, for the encouragement of Latin Prose Composition.

The Rev. Lewis Deedes gave two prizes annually, amounting to £5 5s., for the encouragement of Latin Verse Composition. (These are still continued.)

The Master gives a prize annually for Greek Prose Composition.

Duncan Kay, Esq., gives an annual prize for Elocution.

J. Rhoades, Esq., gives an annual prize for the encouragement of the study of French.

T. Jackson, Esq., gives an annual prize for the encouragement of the study of Art.

The Rev. F. J. Hall has founded a prize to be called the Hall Prize, for the encouragement of the study of Latin on the Modern Side.

Prizes are also given by the Council for the best English Poem, for the encouragement of Latin Verse, Latin Prose, and Greek Verse Composition, and for the study of Mathematics, Chemistry, and Modern Languages.

Haileybury Register.

NOTE.—When the form at leaving was below U.M.2 it has been omitted. Those who furnished information for the first edition are marked with †; those who sent it for the second have the sign ‡ [see preface]. The "House names" are really an anachronism until 1868 [see first page of the list of Masters], but I have thought it less confusing to begin them from the first term. The continuity of the Houses is thus more clearly shown. Where the address is printed in Italics, it is presumably wrong. When it is in Roman type, and there is a ‡ against the name, it was correct when the Register was printed.

FIRST TERM—September, 1862.

HEADS OF THE SCHOOL.

Until 1867 those in the Upper Sixth or Head Form under its varying names used to change places after Examination. W. S. Gibson, A. F. Kirkpatrick, and C. E. Haskins were, I believe, all "Heads of the School" for a time during the first years of the School. R. T. Plummer's name is printed first on the first call over list.

COCK HOUSE.

“For the first three terms the Reds (now Trevelyan) had it their own way, but the Reds and Blues (now Lawrence) tied for Football three years in succession, 1863, 64, 65. The Blues won the Cricket Match in 1865. In 1865 in the Cock House match at Football the score was one try on each side after three days' hard play.”

[The Programme (with the addition of initials) is copied from the Hertford Mercury of July 29, 1865.]

W. S. Gibson	Latin Elegiacs	"Achillis Lacrymae."
J. R. Brooke	Speech from Burke. . . .	"Conciliation with America."
A. F. Kirkpatrick	Latin Prose	"Thirlwall's History of Greece," chap. xxxiv. "The hopes."
W. Y. Smythies }	Shakespear	"Brutus and Cassius."
W. S. Gibson }	Greek Iambics	Milton, Book II. "For therein stands."
A. F. Kirkpatrick	From "The Rivals"	{ Bob Acres. Sir Lucius O'Trigger.
W. G. Macgregor }	English Essay	"The good and evil of war."
E. Scovell }	Hotspur's Speech	"I did deny no prisoners."
J. R. Brooke
W. Y. Smythies

The Speeches being over there was a concert, under the direction of the Rev. L. (sic) Hensley. The following was the programme :—

Morning Prayer	Mendelssohn.	Serenade	Mendelssohn.
Flow down, cold rivulet	Amps.	In a wood	Mendelssohn.
When shall we three meet again	King.	Lützow's wild chase	Weber
Soldiers' love	Kücken.	Hurrah for the Holidays.

(I cannot resist giving the words of the last song)—

" Hurrah ! for the holidays—time full of leisure,
 May we drink our full of their joys and their pleasure.
 First of all we will cheer our Head Master dear,
 Whom we all are so glad to see again here.
 Three cheers for the Council—long may they live—
 For the week more they've granted three cheers let us give.
 Hurrah ! for the Masters whose rule we enjoy,
 Who their time in our good and our pleasure employ.
 Next three hearty cheers for the Head of the School,
 And three for the Prefects, and well may they rule.
 For the Prizemen we'll give a good hearty three,
 Let us hope that next year greater honours they'll see.
 Three cheers for the Eleven, we all hope their score
 Next year may be equal to this year's and more ;
 Their victories next season shall not be so few,
 When the new ground is old and the old ground is new.
 Three cheers for three fellows now going to leave,
 For their life at this College ne'er may they grieve.
 For the old and new Members let's give a loud three :
 Though hostile their colours, true friends may they be.
 Three times three for the Ladies both yellow and blue,
 Whatever their colour, it must match their fair hue.
 Three cheers for our Sovereign, long may she reign ;
 And may Britain's great glory ne'er under her wane !"

[The programme from which I have copied the above was kindly lent by C. Price, Esq., who, if rumour is correct, knew rather more about "Wah Tsa" than Confucius himself. It will be seen that the performance was more like a combined Speech Day and a Saturday Night Entertainment, than what we now call "The Pastimes." These began, as is said in the Historical Notes, in December, 1870.—L. S. M.]

1873.

[In 1873 "The Pastimes" were held in the Hall. They grew out of the old entertainments in Lawrence Dormitory—for which Mr. Reade used to write plays. In the early days there was no Scenery, no Stage, no Proscenium, and no pretence at accuracy of costume, but we enjoyed the performances none the less.]
